

Basic Incident Report Writing Course

This training is to introduce learners to incident reporting, MG11 statement making and crime scene preservation:

Duration: (flexible or bespoke).

This course is considered essential for Front line employees, Neighbourhood, Street Wardens, Community Support Officers and others within their sub-sectors. It is highly recommended to the licensing, educational (teaching / lecturing), retail management and events stewarding sectors, Door Supervisors, Security Officers. Outreach staff working amongst the community will also find elements of the course very relevant, including reception or retail store staff.

Course Objectives:

The main function is to promote awareness and the importance of incident reporting & crime scene preservation:

- On completion to this module learners should have more awareness of:
 - The reasons for recording incidents and the different types of reports and statements
 - Recordable incidents and when the police should be involved
 - How to explain and complete records, incident logs and pocket note books
 - On completion to this module learners should be able to:
 - List the different types of evidence
 - State how forensic evidence can be obtained and how to preserve crime scenes
 - Explain the use of force
 - Preparing to give evidence in court

Course Price:

To enquire about reserving a place on one of our forthcoming courses or in-house training please contact Dave Pattinson at Tactical Security Options Ltd on 07787788811 or via email on contact@tacticalsecurityoptions.co.uk