A nurse called Wilson, came to me and asked me what we do when a patient walks off, I said I can go and have a look for the patient if you have a description of the patient. They only told me the male patient was wearing a Man United t-shirt. The male patient is known to be a IV user, I explained they need to talk to the sister in charge so they can decide to ring the police if they are concerned for a welfare check! The patient was outside smoking in the bus stop.
